AFTER QUARREL WITHARMYMAN

Capt. Stephen O'Connor Is Held for Killing Near Nogales, Ariz.

Nogales, Arix., Jan. 21,-News has reached Nogales of the killing of Dr. A. S. Russell by Capt. Stephen O'Connor, at Washington camp, some 22 miles from Nogales.

According to information received here, O'Connor and Russell met in a store and words followed. After their quarrel Russell left and went toward the old hoist. He was followed and shot by O'Connor, the bullet plercing the lungs, and death resulted shortly afterward.

Several years ago, Capt. O'Connor was stationed with his company at old Fort Crittendon, this county, during which time he secured some valuable mining property. Later, he went to Texas, the company being sent to that state, and he was also in the Philippines war. Some time later, however, he returned to Duquesne, where his property is situated. He alleges that various means have been resorted to to wrest his property from him by the Duquesne Mining company. Dr. Russell was the company's surgeon.
